5785 YIZKOR 2024

Yizkor (“Remember”) is the memorial service that is recited on Yom Kippur and other major Jewish festivals. It is especially appropriate for Yom Kippur because this is the day on which we enact our own deaths – wearing white like the traditional burial shroud, refraining from life-affirming activities like eating and drinking – so we can better reflect on the meaning of our lives. The boundary between the living and the dead seems thinner today. As we contemplate our lives and our mortality, we remember those who have gone before us: those who helped us become the people we are, those whom we miss and cherish every day, those whom we strive to honor through our deeds today and all days.

Zichronam livrachah – May our loved ones’ memories be an abiding blessing.

We remember with love and reverence our departed whose names have been inscribed in this Memorial Book.

Let the glory of God be extolled, let the great Name be hallowed, in the world whose creation God willed. May God's reign soon prevail, in our own day, our own lives, and the life of all Israel, and let us say, Amen.

Let God's great name be blessed forever and ever.

Let the name of the Blessed Holy One be glorified, exalted, and honored, though God is beyond all the praises, songs, and adorations that we can utter, and let us say, Amen.

For us and for all Israel, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true, and let us say, Amen.

May the One who causes peace to reign in the high heavens, let peace descend on us, on all Israel, and on all the world, and let us say, Amen.

May the Source of Peace send peace to all who mourn, and comfort to all who are bereaved. Amen.
